

Shri Saroj Kumar Sahoo is an Industrialist and Entrepreneur with extensive experience in the textile manufacturing sector, business management, entrepreneurship development, and MSME promotion. Over the years, he has made significant contributions to industrial development, policy advocacy, and strengthening the MSME ecosystem through leadership roles in industry organizations and close engagement with Government institutions. He has represented the interests of MSMEs before various Ministries, Government Departments, Public Sector Undertakings, Financial Institutions, and Industry Associations. His work has focused on promoting entrepreneurship, facilitating technology adoption, advancing skill development, generating employment, and supporting sustainable industrial growth.

PRESENT POSITIONS

All India Vice President, Laghu Udyog Bharati, a leading national organisation working for the growth and development of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) across India.

Regional Board Member, Employees' State Insurance Corporation (ESIC), Government of India, contributing towards improving healthcare and social security services for workers and industries.

Part-time / Independent Director, CSIR–National Research Development Corporation (NRDC), Ministry of Science & Technology, Government of India.